STANDING ORDER, No. 5, 1832.

That no leases be granted in perpetuity.

RESOLUTION of COURT, held 18 December 1846.

That in all future lettings of lands belonging to the Society, such lettings where practicable be to the actual occupiers, and not in large quantities to persons to re-let to others.

RESOLUTION of COURT, held 17 January 1870.

That, with a view to encourage the outlay of capital in the erection of a better class of buildings on the Society's estates, and also to facilitate the building of warehouses and other accommodation rendered necessary by the increase of trade and commerce of Londonderry, this Society will in future be ready to entertain applications for leases for terms not exceeding 99 years in all cases where the amount to be expended shall be deemed adequate, provided that in such leases there be a covenant that no claim for what is called tenant right shall be made at the expiration of such lease.
